THE EAST. REV. DR. J. H. WORCESTER has formally notified the directors of the Union theological seminary of his acceptance of the professorship tendered him. PITCHER FERSON, of Syracuse, has jumped his club and gone home to ston. He served Buffalo the same trick last season. A TRAIN conveying a Sunday school excursion from Ellenburg and Rouse's Point and intervening stations on the Central Vermont railroad, ran into a mail train at Champlain, N. Y. Two persons were killed and about twenty injured.

A CLOUDBURST occurred between Harrisburg and Rockville, Pa., and caused Paxton creek to rise so rapidly that the railroad tracks and many houses in South Harrisburg were flooded. There were several narrow escapes from drowning.

THE White Star line steamer Majestic, which left Liverpool July 29, arrived at New York on the 5th, breaking the record from Queenstown to New York. Her time was five days, eighteen hours and eight minutes. THE green glass bottle makers and factory owners split at their conference in Pittsburgh and a lockout is probable. BOTH members of the assigned banking firm of Schall & Danner, of York, Pa., bave been arrested charged with receiving money from John B. Walsh, of New York, when on the verge of insolvency.

PROCTOR KNOTT, the celebrated race horse, died at Horse Haven, Saratoga, N. Y., on the 6th, of pneumonia. THE St. Louis express on the West Shore at Port Byron, near Syracuse, N. Y., ran into a disabled freight train. Fire added a terrible horror to the wreck. Twelve persons were killed, all but one being Italians. About twenty were injured, mostly of the same nationality. A HUN was made on the New Jersey Trust & Safe Deposit Co. at Cape May, N. J., caused by a lad, John M. Love, employed at the Stockton, startto get 120 instructed votes ing a groundless story that the bank was in trouble. Love was put in jail. NINE insane convicts of the state insane asylum at Auburn, N. Y., overpowered their keeper, secured his keys and escaped. Five of the escaped convicts were recaptured. NORMAN CAMPBELL, a member of the Consolidated stock and petroleum exchange, committed suicide in Prospect park, Brooklyn. His family stated that the suicide was probably occasioned by ABRAHAM BACKER, the New York broker who failed recently, is accused of shady work. W. E. SCHMERTZ, an extensive shoe manufacturer of Pittsburgh, Pa., has

IDEAL BROILING.

To breil perfectly, over a fire, requires constant watching and an experienced cook. With the CHARTER OAK, a child ten years old will equal any expert, Place an ordinary sheet-iron pan, one-quar ter full of sand or water-either will answer. ter full of sand or water—either will answer, sand is preferable—upon the bottom oven plate to catch the drippings; grease the oven slide or broiling rack; one greasing is all that is required. Place the steaks upon the oven slide; close the wire gauze oven door for three to five minutes—large steaks require ten to lifteen minutes—and the steak will be thoroughly cooked on top and bottom at the same time.
